

The 5th International Seminar on Regional Innovation Policies

DRAFT WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Workshop	Room #	Room#	Room#	Room#
October 14th 1	Session 1: Innovation in resource industries and peripheries Chair: Mikaela Vasström	Session 2: Entrepreneurship and growth Chair: James Karlsen	Session 3: Various views on regional innovation and policy Chair: Roger Normann	Session 4: Innovation and policies in cities Chair: Bjørn Terje Asheim
11:00-12:30	Paper 1: Manuel González-López, Alexandre Trigo, Sebastián Villasante: Production changes in the Spanish Cod Fishing Industry: why institutional change is needed in order to survive Paper 2: Bjørnar Sæther: The economic geography of agricultural restructuring and innovation in Norway. A comparative case study Paper 3: M^a Concepción López Fernández, Ana M^a Serrano Bedia, Gema García Piqueres: Determinants of innovative capacity: the case of European peripheral regions	Paper 1: Olav R. Spilling, Ekaterina Bjørnåli: Mission impossible? Evaluation of a program for stimulating high-growth entrepreneurship in rural Norway Paper 2: Nina Mustikkamäki & Markku Sotarauta: Institutional entrepreneurship and organizational change in the context of regional innovation systems Paper 3: May-Britt Ellingsen: Innovation in marine biotechnology - clustering or trust and entrepreneurship? An explorative study of an issuant industry in the High North	Paper 1: Sveinung Eikeland: From State to Region – and back? Paper 2: Jon P. Knudsen: Regional innovation systems and national policies – An outline for investigating criss-crossing Nordic cleavages Paper 3: Sverre J. Herstad, Øyvind Pålshaugen: Decoupled diversity? The capital region and the Norwegian innovation system	Paper 1: Rune Dahl Fitjar, Andrés Rodríguez-Pose: Drivers of Innovation in Norwegian City-Regions Paper 2: Ingrid H. G. Johnsen: The geography of innovation dynamics: Analysis of the fashion design industry in Oslo, Norway Paper 3: Josephine V. Rekers: Introducing Innovations: The Geography of Market Intermediaries in Cultural and Science-based Industries

October 14th 2	Session 5: Struggling with theory Chair: Bjørn Asheim	Session 6: Creating 'systems' by policy? Chair: James Karlsen	Session 7: Approaches to Regional innovation systems Chair: Arne Isaksen	Session 8: Organization of innovation Chair: Roger Normann
15:00-16:30	Paper 1: Ove Bjarnar, Arnt Fløysand, Stig-Erik Jakobsen: The dynamism of clusters: From abstraction to actant Paper 2: Tom Johnstad: Innovation – action, system and cooperation. The relation between different theoretical and policy approaches Paper 3: Hans Chr. Garmann Johnsen: A theoretical approach to collaborative advantage	Paper 1: Tor Claussen, Trond Haga: Innovation, systemic integrated activity or arbitrary grouping Paper 2: Alexandre Almeida, Cristina Santos, Mário Rui Silva: Science and technology parks' functions within a regional innovation systems: the case of follower regions Paper 3: Regina Salvador, Ana Ferreira and Abel Simões: The Portuguese Maritime Cluster: Description, Planning and Innovation Paper 4: Frezghi Berhane Haile: Regional governance and policies: A comparative study on economic development policy process in Beijing and Shanghai in China	Paper 1: Jerker Moodysson, Roman Martin, Elena Zukauskaitė: Regional innovation policy beyond 'best practice': lessons from the case of Skåne Paper 2: Kautonen, Mika, Lehenkari, Janne, Lemola, Tarmo & Viljamaa, Kimmo: Open Regional Innovation Systems – Policies to Foster Open and User-Driven Innovation in Finnish Regions Paper 3: Miren Larrea, Mari Jose Aranguren, Davide Parrilli: Regional Innovation Policy Bottom Up: The Roles of Proximity Networks and the Engaged Research	Paper 1: Øyvind Pålshaugen: Managing innovation by means of organizational innovation Paper 2: Bo Terje Kalsaas: Emergence and growth of two firms in the southwest Norwegian oil and gas cluster: Explained by entrepreneurship and external conditions Paper 3: Halvor Holtskog, Geir Ringen and Jan Olav Endrerud: Financial crisis affects absorptive capacity. Case Raufoss cluster

October 15th 3	Session 9: Constructing regional advantages Chair: James Karlsen	Session 10: The role of HEIs Chair: Roger Normann	Session 11: Learning from policy Chair: Mikaela Vasström
10:30-12:00	Paper 1: Franz Tödting, Roland Schneider, Christoph Höglinger, Markus Grillitsch: Constructing regional advantage in the Austrian ICT sector –Towards fine tuned innovation policies Paper 2: Mads Bruun Ingstrup, Torben Damgaard: Cluster Development through Public Sector facilitation Paper 3: Grethe Mattland Olsen, Else Ragni Yttredal, Finn Ove Båtevik: Between regional innovation and lock in. Experiences from the Norwegian innovation program VRI in Møre and Romsdal	Paper 1: Mark Freel, Heidi Wiig Aslesen: Exploring the determinants of university collaboration: the role of work organization and core knowledge in manufacturing and knowledge-intensive services Paper 2: Ety Nilsen, Halvor Austenå: Global customer driven innovation – where does that leave the local HEI? Paper 3: Sverre J. Herstad, Thomas Brekke: Science and experience; global and local: Building regional knowledge diffusion infrastructures	Paper 1: Richard Ennals: Creating Collaborative Advantage: Programme Learning Paper 2: Walter Scherrer, Ronald W. McQuaid: Institutional co-operation and regional innovation – the case of PPP Paper 3: Anne Haugen Gausdal, Ety Nilsen: Orchestration of networks for regional development